ORDER

15 Defendants filed an “Emergency” motion seeking to preclude plaintiffs “from 16 seeking to admit or admitting into evidence for any purpose . . . the report by, or testimony
17 from, plaintiffs’ retained expert John Draneas.” (Doc. 139.) Defendants argue Draneas was 18 not timely disclosed and request an order excluding Draneas’s opinions before a deposition
19 of a different non-party that is set to begin today, April 15, 2025. An allegedly untimely 20 expert disclosure falls well short of an emergency. Defendants are not entitled to relief, the 21 deposition may proceed, and the possible exclusion of Draneas’s opinions can be addressed
22 at a later date, if needed.

23 IT IS ORDERED the Motion to Expedite (Doc. 139) is DENIED.

24 Dated this 15th day of April, 2025.
